

DEVONSQUARE BIOGRAPHY

Thirty years is a long time. Most third world governments won't last this long, not to mention musical groups. For the last thirty years these three talented singer songwriters from Maine and New Hampshire ( Alana MacDonald , Tom Dean and Herb Ludwig ) have toured the US and Europe as well as releasing five CD's.

A devoted fan base followed these three musicians from coast to coast to hear their shimmering three part harmonies and award winning songs that have earned them an international reputation. They were commonly referred to as the #1 vocal group on the contemporary-folk music circuit.

Sadly, founding member Herb Ludwig passed on due to complications from heart surgery in 2005.

Original members, guitarist and singer Tom Dean and singer and violinist Alana MacDonald are now joined by longtime bass guitarist Teg Glendon and guitarist Robby Coffin.

Career Highlights

*1984/1985 - Best New Album "Devonsquare" "Night Sail"

(Maine Music Awards)

*1987 - Atlantic Records signs the songwriting trio to a 2 record deal and re-releases "Walking On Ice" internationally.

*1989 - Pony Canyon Records in Japan releases "Night Sail", a compilation of the first two recordings by Devonsquare.

*1992 - Nominated for Best New Act (Boston Music Awards)

*1992 - "Bye Bye Route 66" is released internationally on Atlantic Records.

*1996 - "Industrial Twilight" the bands 5th recording is released independently as well as in Germany on SVP Record